COAST CLIPPINGS.

Cole Tompkins, of Hollister, Cal., was accidentally shot last week, and is in a dangerous state.

Near Hollister, Cal., last week Dr. Rankin drove off a grade and was fatally hurt, dying Thursday.

Daniel Gallagher, a native of Ireland, died at Sacramento yesterday, having attained the age of 104 years.

A man said to be named Thomas Bolito, was found dead in a room over Matlock's saloon, Pendleton, yesterday morning. His throat was cut, but the coroner's jury failed to determine whether it was a case of suicide or murder.

Says the Oregonian: The blue grouse of Oregon is the handsomest of all the grouse tribe and deserves the protection of our laws. Let the school boys shoot them between September and January as much as they like, but after that time punish the boys just the same as the men.

The thermometer on the morning of February 19th stood about thirty-six degrees below zero at Grasshopper, Lassen county, and at Susanville ten degrees below. There was snow at Hayden Hill, in the same county, between four and five feet deep, while at Susanville it was six inches.

J. C. Powers & Co. of Rye Valley, Baker county, have sold their ranch and placer mining property, located there for $40,000 cash, to John W. Drew of Concord, N. H., in trust for New England capitalists. The property has the reputation of being one of the best and surest-paying pieces of property in Oregon.

The rapidity with which Oregon is being colonized may be judged from the statement of the Oregonian that the country between Butter Creek and Birch Creek comprises some 125,000 acres of the finest land in Utah territory. Five months ago not even the choicest land was secured, but now it is difficult to get either timber culture, pre-emption or homestead in that locality.

A man well known in the mountains as "Sixty," in company with Andy Covert, started out from Ketchikan, I. T., three weeks ago, on snowshoes, to relocate a claim on Lost River. Nothing was heard from them until a few days since, when "Sixty" reached Halley with both hands and feet badly frozen. He had traveled two days without food, and made fifty miles the last day and night. The thermometer marked 18° below zero on his arrival.

BELL TONGUE SYRUP,
AN ACCIDENTAL DISCOVERY OF GREAT VALUE.
An Inestimable Benefit to Mankind.

UNCLE BEN JO'S
GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN PA ACEA.

UNCLE BEN JO was born in Boston in 1830. Being a botanist, he effected many wonderful cures with roots and herbs. In 1854 he went to South America to study botany, and while there accidentally made his great discovery. The natives of this country were quite familiar with the plant, which they used for the purpose of keeping snakes away from their tents or houses. This they did by laying it in a circle about the same as a proper distance off. This herb, Uncle Ben Jo, as well as the natives, considered a very obnoxious and poisonous one, and when green and fresh it threw off a very disagreeable and repulsive odor. The herb grows about two feet high, and about eight inches of the top part of its stalk is leafless, and this part, like a handle, hangs downward perpendicularly, and from its curved neck to its end it increases in size, and on the end of the same is a large, bulbous, bell-shaped stalk and ball, in this hanging position, looks precisely like the tongue of a bell. Hence Uncle Ben Jo named it the "Bell Tongue Plant." In South America this herb is only found in the extreme interior of the country, and the natives there call it "Zarr Nemo." It is a wonderful cure of kidney and liver diseases, also, dyspepsia, neuralgia and rheumatism. We have a whole library full of testimonials. Sold by OSBURN & SHORWICKER, Reno, Nev.

MOLINE, Ill., July 14, 1881.
H. H. Warner & Co., Rochester, N. Y.
GENTLEMEN: Your remedy, the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure has been used by both my wife and myself. She used it "on general principles," as a system and liver regulator; I took the medicine for a long-standing liver trouble, which has been the source of much inconvenience, and which failed to yield to the doctor's remedies, or any other, until I used your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. We both unite in pronouncing it to be the best medicine we ever used, and in recommending it to others as a safe remedy.

Mayor of Moline.
CHICAGO, May 30, 1881.
H. H. Warner & Co., Rochester, N. Y.

MY DEAR SIR: For several years I have been a sufferer, and until your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure was suggested I have not known what it is to be free from pain. My family physician attributed all my suffering to a diseased condition of my kidneys, and after he had failed to give me relief, I tried your remedy. It is a well-man-to-day.

Thousands of equally strong endorsements—many of them in cases where hope was abandoned—have been voluntarily given, showing the remarkable power of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. In all diseases of the kidneys, liver or urinary organs. If an one who reads this has any physical trouble remember the great danger of delay.

CHINESE IMMIGRATION.

The last evening's San Francisco Bulletin says:

"There is a proposition to hold a series of mass meetings throughout the State on Saturday next to give expression to the opinion of California on the necessity of the immediate passage of some bill suspending Chinese immigration. When the question was directly submitted to the people in 1879, 154,638 voted against Chinese immigration and 883 in favor of it, and this in a total vote of 161,405. Since then the people have seen nothing to change the opinion to which on that occasion they gave expression with such surprising unanimity; on the contrary, they have had almost every day since abundant reason to congratulate themselves on the soundness of their judgment. The Chinese are no benefit to any interest. Their presence means competition, degrading in its character, with every pursuit, with the exception of one or two of the professions. They are, in fact, stripping the country as fast as they can of its wealth and sending it to China. It is quite certain that a general and imposing demonstration at this time would greatly strengthen the hands at Washington. But if attempted, every measure should be taken to make it as impressive as possible."

Let every town in Nevada hold meetings and adopt suitable resolutions, which if forwarded to our representatives in Congress would assist them materially just at this time. The people of the Pacific slope have waited long and patiently for Congress to do something; Pacific coast representatives have worked faithfully, and now let the people endorse their action and show Congress and the people East that we appreciate what our delegates have done, and at the same time invite them to put a shoulder to the wheel and assist in protecting the Pacific coast from further Chinese immigration.

THE DISAPPOINTED "CHRONICLE."

The San Francisco Chronicle shows much ill nature in discussing Sargent's appointment. It says his appointment as Minister to Germany is generally ridiculed, and is regarded as "banishment from the country." The Chronicle has been trying to kill Sargent off for several years, and has made a failure of every attempt. And now that Sargent's worth has been recognized by the Government executive, it feels called upon to come out of its hole and say something. It is truly "cold comfort" for the Chronicle to see Sargent recognized in any degree, and now that he has been entrusted with one of the most important foreign missions, it is nearly freezing, but the Chronicle will have to take its medicine.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

As a candidate for Governor, George T. Mayre, of Virginia, is the latest news from the Democratic camp. Report says Lieutenant Governor Adams has his foot on the third term plank, and will have it under water by convention time, when it is expected he will ask for the second place. Those who talk politics, frequently hear Major Wm. Garrard's name mentioned as the right man to carry the Democratic banner through the next campaign.

Eight persons have been indicted charged with contributing by their neglect to the recent disaster at the Ring Theater. The trial commences on the 2nd of May. Among the accused are Neveal, ex-Burgonmaster of Vienna; Jennat, manager of the Ring Theater; and Landstay, Commissary of Police.

The Colusa Sun (Democratic), in discussing California politics, says: "We are for no man for Governor—we are against no man, but are free to act according to the development of circumstances." The Sun wants something to say itself as to who shall carry the flag.

Many of Blaine's friends and admirers express disappointment in his eulogy on Garfield. They expected it would be the effort of his life, and were waiting for something far above what was given.

The wires were down east of Omaha until a late hour this afternoon, which makes our telegraphic news much less than usual.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

Press Dispatches to RENO EVENING GAZETTE.

EASTERN.

Land Frauds.

WASHINGTON, February 28. Senator Van Wyck, of Nebraska, in his speech on Friday against frauds in the Land Department, made direct charges. He declared that an organized ring is robbing the Government by township surveys. Under the law townships and cities can be surveyed by depositing at any Government Depository the estimated amount of the cost of the survey, in return for which the party making the deposits is given land certificates, which are receivable for Government lands anywhere. The original law made these certificates receivable only for lands in the townships surveyed. The records show that since the amendment of the law, making them generally receivable, there has been an enormous increase in the surveys. Van Wyck charges that the ring surveys townships where the land is absolutely worthless and uses the certificates to purchase valuable lands elsewhere. He charges that the Surveyor General acts in this ring and that they give out contracts for surveys to members of the ring at figures largely in excess of the real cost. In proof of these charges he cites the fact that the names of the same parties appear on the record of the General Land Office as contractors for making these surveys in Arizona, California, Idaho, Nebraska and Nevada. A table showing a remarkable increase in these surveys was presented by Van Wyck. It shows that the operations under this survey system are costing the Government millions of dollars, and that the expenses in that direction continue to increase yearly.

The Honors Given.

WASHINGTON, February 27.

The President is very much aggrieved at Senator Hoar's speech on Saturday. He was especially hurt for the reason that he had gone out of his way to pay attention to the recommendations of Senator Hoar and his friends. The Stalwarts wanted Boutwell put upon the Supreme Bench before Gray was nominated, and had the friends listened to his immediate friends Mr. Boutwell would have been nominated. He, however, took counsel with Mr. Hoar and selected Judge Gray. After giving this consideration to Mr. Hoar, he thinks it comes with poor grace from the Senator from Massachusetts to so bitterly oppose a personal selection of his (the President's) own. Senator Hoar's speech has created a marked sensation, and it evinces the intensely antagonistic feeling that exists in the Republican party. There is no doubt that Senator Hoar's attack upon Conkling is based largely upon personal spite. Conkling voted against the confirmation of his brother, E. R. Hoar, whose nomination was before the Senate some years ago, and since that time the Hoars have been his uncompromising enemies.

Congressional House.

WASHINGTON, February 28.

Senate Bill, appropriating $100,000 for continuing improvements at Galveston harbor, passed.

Calkins, Chairman of the Committee on Elections, submitted the report of the committee on the contested election case of Campbell vs. Cannon, accompanied by a resolution declaring neither contestant nor contestee entitled to a seat. He also submitted a minority report, declaring Campbell entitled to his seat, while Moulton submitted a further resolution signed by Albertson, Davis of Illinois, Moulton, and Jones, of Texas, declaring Cannon a duly elected delegate to Congress. The report was laid on the table for future action.

Blaine's Eulogy.

WASHINGTON, February 28.

Blaine's eulogy on Garfield was concluded at 1:30 p. m., having just taken an hour and a half in its delivery. As Mr. Blaine uttered the last solemn words the spectators broke into a storm of applause, which was not hushed for some minutes. The address was listened to with great interest and in solemn silence, unbroken by any sound except a sigh of relief such as arises from large audiences when a strong tension is removed from their minds. When the orator passed from his allusion to the differences existing in the Republican party last Spring, the benediction was then offered by Rev. D. Bullock. The Marine band played the Garfield dead march as the invited guests filed out of the chamber in the same order in which they entered. The House was then called to order and a concurrent resolution was adopted: "The thanks of this Congress are hereby presented to Hon. James G. Blaine for the appropriate memorial address delivered by him, and that he be invited to furnish a copy for publication." On motion of McKinney, as a further mark of respect, the House adjourned.

Bank and Train Robbers Arrested.

OMAHA, February 27.

Sheriff Dan Farrell, of Mills county, Iowa, arrived at home at Glenwood this morning from Randolph, Wisconsin, having in charge two noted train and bank robbers whom he had captured unaided. Their names are Poke Wells, alias C. H. Wells, and Frank Johnson, alias Bill Norris. They are charged with being members of the gang who robbed the train at Winston, Missouri, in which the train conductor was shot and killed. They are also charged with robbing a bank at Riverton, Iowa. Farrell, who got on their track some time ago, found them keeping a hotel at Randolph. He walked into the hotel and called for Warner, to Poke Wells, who soon responded to the call. Farrell said: "I want you," whereupon Wells replied, "You do?" and then pulled revolvers and commenced firing. Farrell shot back several times, but being wounded in the head, fell, and Wells jumped on him. Farrell turned him, and getting on top finally made him surrender with a revolver at his head, and put bracelets on him. The Sheriff then easily captured Norris. Farrell was wounded three times and Wells four times. None of the wounds proving serious and not interfering with their traveling. Norris and Wells have been taken to Missouri for trial for the train robbery and for the murder of the conductor.

New Mexico Smelting Works.

LOOSEBROUGH, N. M., Feb. 28.

The works are a complete success and have occasioned quite a boom in mining circles. The object of the increased capital is to enlarge the capacity of the works. They can now treat 40 tons of ore per day. The capacity will be doubled.

Yesterday afternoon was cold and disagreeable. Spring overcoats were in demand, and as usual Abraham's White House was the place where those who paid any attention to fashion went.

Isaac Barnett came to Reno when Reno was in her infancy. He has maintained his position in the business world and accumulated wealth. He sells dry goods cheaper than the cheapest. In fact he is giving goods away.

Returned Double.

J. C. McAnnanahan came up from San Jose yesterday. Mac is a rustler, and when he undertakes anything it goes with a vim. While he was away he made the acquaintance of Miss Addie Chamberlin, of San Jose, and concluded he wanted to marry. With his usual go-ahead-ness he told Miss C. what he wanted. "Yes," was her answer, and Mac is working double now. He feels well satisfied with the choice he has made, and says the only objection to her is that she is a Simon pure Democrat, while he, being a Black Republican, fears trouble election years.

Ass's and Jack's.

Ass Dawson and Jack Caughlin have leased the saloon next the postoffice and are fixing it up very tasty. Dawson & Caughlin are both well and favorably known in Reno and will do a good business. They both have many friends who will be glad to know that they have engaged in business here. Their saloon is bound to be a favorite resort.

Card of Thanks.

I feel truly grateful to all who so kindly assisted me in my sad affliction, and at the burial of my late wife, and shall ever remember them with the kindest of feelings.
 JACOB MURMAN.

SUICIDE.

United States Marshal Ash Shoots Himself Through the Heart.

A special dispatch to the GAZETTE dated Virginia City, says: Acting United States Marshal Gustavus Ash shot himself through the heart at 8:30 o'clock last night. Ash has been drinking heavily of late, and business troubles seemed to worry him beyond endurance. He went home last evening, took off his coat and laid down on the sofa in his house, and placing the pistol to his heart, fired. He never spoke after the shot. The physicians say he could not have taken better aim. Ash has been United States Marshal for at least two terms, and was well known in every part of the State. He had many friends, and before whisky destroyed his mind, was considered a good business man. His sad self-murder is much regretted by those who knew him.

The Enterprise gives the further following particulars: The shooting was done in his own house, No. 40 Washington street. The family were almost frantic with grief, but from what could be gathered from persons present it would seem that Mr. Ash came home and entered the house without displaying any unusual excitement. He entered the parlor and, taking off his coat, lay down upon a lounge as though to rest. His people were about the house, and it would seem that some of them in the same room, though the information obtained on that point was not clear.

No one appears to have had the slightest notion of his intention until the deed was done. He placed the muzzle of the pistol in such a position that the bullet entered his breast about an inch and a half to the right of the left nipple, and probably half an inch (on a line) below it. The physicians who examined the wound say that had he studied anatomy half his life the shot could not have been better aimed. They believe that the ball passed through the lower part of the heart.

As soon as the shot was fired all was consternation in the house and among the immediate neighbors, who rushed in. Messengers were sent in haste for medical aid, and soon Drs. Kirby and Conn were in attendance; also, Coroner Conn, who is also a physician. It was seen at once that nothing could be done. Deceased never spoke after firing the shot. The pistol fell from his hand to the floor and he lay motionless upon the lounge, showing no sign of life, except an occasional gasp. He showed this sign of life for some fifteen minutes, when all was over.

Deceased leaves a wife and four children—three daughters and a son. The oldest daughter is about sixteen or seventeen, and the youngest child—a daughter—nine or ten. The mother and all the children were nearly insane with grief. One of the daughters went into convulsions, and for a time it was feared she would die, but Dr. Harris, who attended her, last night considered her out of danger.

Mr. Ash was an old, well-known and highly-esteemed resident of this city, and no cause is known for his act except that he has met with a good many losses in stock, was considerably embarrassed pecuniarily and for some time past had been drinking pretty heavily. At times of late he has seemed very despondent—so gloomy indeed that it was remarked by nearly all who knew him. Some who saw him yesterday afternoon, however, say that he was quite cheerful and was talking and laughing.

Although acting as United States Marshal, he had resigned that office. He sent in his resignation on the 8th instant, and had received a letter accepting it, but asking him to remain in office until his successor was appointed and qualified.

It is said that Mr. Ash lost about $10,000 some three years ago in Sierra Nevada and smaller sums in other stocks, since which time he has never appeared the same man as before. It is truly a most lamentable affair, and the scene at the house of his family last night was one that can never be forgotten by those who were witness to it. It wrung the hearts of the stoutest and roughest of men. The family is a most pleasant and interesting one, and the grief of mother, daughters and all is deep and most sincere.

Deceased was about thirty-nine years of age, though he looked some years younger. Most of his folks live near Sacramento, Cal., where they are leading and highly respected citizens. George I. Lammon, of this city, is a brother-in-law, and we believe the only relative here outside of the family. Coroner Conn will probably hold an inquest this evening.

Nevada Beef East.

Richie & Barum have driven a band of over two hundred beef cattle to Winnemucca for shipment East. This, says the Silver State, is the first shipment of fat cattle from this station East, though several thousand head of stock cattle have been shipped in that direction. Fat cattle command a fair price in San Francisco, yet it appears to be more profitable to ship them East.

Lost Man Department.

Robert Turner is missing. He is supposed to be somewhere on this coast. Was last heard from eighteen months ago. Any information about him will be thankfully received by his brother, John Turner, railroad shops, Elkhart, Indiana.

SANTA CLARA VALLEY.

What a "Gazette" Subscriber has to Say of Santa Jose and its Future.

ED. GAZETTE: Generally speaking, the people of Santa Clara valley feel cheerful. The recent rains have made crop prospects solid, and as every branch of business depends upon the prosperity of the farmers, that being assured, all are happy, and croakers take back seats. The activity about the real estate office of James A. Clayton, shows that many persons from abroad are seeking homes in this valley. The fruit-growers are the only ones who seem at all dispirited. An insect pest brought from Australia, called the scale bug, has attacked the apple, pear and peach trees, and in some instances killed the whole orchard. They always render the fruit valueless. Experiments were made last year by some, with crude petroleum, and proved entirely successful. It is applied in the form of spray. They mount a barrel on a small sled, and insert a force-pump into the bung-hole. A rubber hose is attached to the pump with a long piece of gas-pipe at the other end of the hose with a fine sprinkler on it. One man works the pump, and another manipulates the pipe, and in that way they go over whole orchards. One barrel will spray an acre of trees. The people of this valley are about like other folks. If a neighbor goes into an enterprise that pays all hands pitch in and destroy his business. The cultivation of prunes has proved very remunerative this year and everybody wants a prune orchard. This year hundreds of acres are being set out with prune trees. The electric light was a matter of interest to me. The tower is a new departure, but both the tower and the light are certainly a success. At the distance of a full mile and a half my shadow showed very plainly, and even holding up my hand cast a shadow on the house. I know nothing of the cost, but it is as cheap as gas. Sooner or later it must displace all other artificial illuminators. The light is very mellow and pleasant to the eye, and will not endanger life if a green-horn blows it out. The acacia tree is in full bloom. Also violets and roses, and many other shrubs and plants send forth their fragrance on the air. Yours, TRANSIENT.

San Jose, February 26th.

Burglary.

About 2:30 this morning Joe Wyman, an ex-convict, who was employed at the Lake House for a few weeks after his discharge from prison last fall, entered a room occupied by M. C. Lake, at the Lake House, and attempted to rob him. Wyman had visited the room some time during the day, and taken the screws from the night catch, and put in small wooden plugs, which made it an easy matter to open the door, but in opening it the catch dropped to the floor and awakened Lake, who got up and grabbed Wyman as soon as he entered the room. Lake called loudly for assistance, but no one hearing the alarm, and Lake fearing Wyman would knife him, let him go. No one knew about it until this morning. Wyman has disappeared, but will undoubtedly be captured within a day or two. He was convicted on a charge of house breaking, February 6, 1880, and sent to prison from this county for two years. He is very handy at any little game of burglary or petty larceny, and quite useful at the prison, where he belongs.

"On the Hip"

This rather inelegant expression, used particularly to indicate that condition of things in which one person holds another by some circumstance, word or act, finds literal exemplification in the following narrative by John Rourke, of Ottawa, Canada. Mr. Rourke says: I have been subject to hip disease for eight or nine years, and have tried all kinds of remedies, but found nothing to give me any relief until a friend advised me to try St. Jacobs Oil. I tried it, and after using one and a half bottles I am entirely relieved of pain, and have not been troubled since, now nearly six months. This is what people would call getting hip disease "on the hip."

Fresh Seeds.

R. E. Queen has just received an immense stock of alfalfa, red top, timothy and clover seeds, onion sets, and a large assortment of vegetable and flower seeds, direct from the famous seed farms of D. M. Perry, Michigan, and James Vick, New York. It is the largest stock ever brought to Reno, all of which will be sold at the lowest Eastern prices.

A Poor Investment.

John E. Shawhan, formerly a stock broker in Virginia City, but now of San Francisco, has had bad luck with the libel suits brought by him against several San Francisco papers. He has had to put up still another $100. Last Friday Judge Lawlor dismissed his case against the Bulletin, and ordered him to pay $100 costs.

To-night's Meeting.

THE RENO GAZETTE

For 1882 will be a better paper than it has ever been before. It now gets all the latest press dispatches, and is thus placed many hours ahead of any other paper. It has always been the policy of the proprietor to make the GAZETTE a first-class local paper, with full accounts of everything that occurs in Reno, or Washoe County, or the State of Nevada. The resources of the country are carefully studied and written up by able correspondents, and the GAZETTE has done as much as all the other papers combined in this respect.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE contains all the reading matter of the Daily, without its advertisements. It is an eight-page paper, with good, plain letters and clean, white paper. It is increased in an extraordinary manner in the last six months, and is now growing rapidly. Its interesting matter, crisp editorials and late news make its popularity. By saving themselves of our club rate, the WEEKLY GAZETTE costs only half a dollar a year. It is given with the Bulletin, Chronicle, Examiner and Record-Union, which cost alone two dollars and fifty cents, for three dollars; with Harper's publications and the Argonaut for four dollars and fifty cents a year, and with other papers in proportion. Send for sample copies.
